

California Executive Council on Biological Diversity

Meeting to Discuss Status, Opportunities, and Needs of Watershed, Landscape, and Bioregional Groups

Hosted by Trinity BioRegion Group

March 9, 1994

9:30 am - 5 pm

Park Terrace Inn, Regency Room

1900 Hilltop Drive, Redding, California

A G E N D A

9:30 am Introductions and overview - Douglas Wheeler

9:50 am Welcome - Trinity BioRegion Group

10:00-noon Round table and discussion
Topics: Klamath Province caucus report
Status and needs of individual watershed, landscape, and bioregional groups
Moderator: Douglas Wheeler and Al Wright

Noon No-Host Lunch

1:30 - 2:45 pm Panel and discussion
Topic: National, state, and local perspectives on watershed, landscape, and bioregional groups
Moderator: Michael Mantell and Nancy Huffman

2:45 - 3:45 pm Facilitated session
Topic: What Council and signatory agencies can do for groups
Facilitators: Tim Wallace and Jerry Moles

3:45 - 4:00 pm Break

4:00 - 4:30 pm Draft plan development
Topic: Outline of Council strategy and next steps
Session Lead: Chuck Pritchard

4:30 - adjournment Closing remarks - Douglas Wheeler

If you have any questions or need additional information concerning the Executive Council on Biological Diversity, please contact Joanne Cemo, Department of Forestry and Fire Protection, 1920 20th Street, Sacramento, California 95814, (916) 227-2677.